

Miracles And Your Relationships

A Seminar By
Loretta M. Siani, Ph.D.

The Holy Spirit's temple is not a body but a relationship.
A Course In Miracles

The instant the Decision Maker chose to dissolve our relationship with God all succeeding relationships became unholy and unreal. Born out of guilt and based on separation and lack the ego seeks to get something out of every relationship. It seeks to find in others what it lacks itself and then calls that love. Its purposes are always selfish, destructive and egocentric. In relationships it looks for ways to increase its pride, fulfill its pleasure or deny its guilt. In fact, the ego's relationships are not relationships at all because they are an attempt to relate with someone who is not there. They have no meaning because they are expressions of guilt instead of love.

A Course In Miracles teaches that only a radical shift in purpose changes our relationships from shadowy reflections of guilt and separation to temples where love abides and miracles take place. Our next session focuses on how to make the shift from unholy to holy purposes in our personal and professional relationships as we cover the following topics:

- The Metaphysics of Relationship
