

Miracles Money And Your Career

A Seminar by
Loretta M. Siani, Ph.d.

All real pleasure comes from doing God's Will.

A Course In Miracles.

I once heard it expressed that there are three ingredients that make up a fulfilled life: 1. Someone to love; 2. Something to look forward to, and; 3. Interesting work. Certainly we can't argue the first two and the fact that our greatest pleasures in life come through loving relationships and the dreams we look forward to with our loved ones. But rarely do we talk at length about the fulfillment and pleasure that comes from work. And even though, as Stephen Covey has so well said, we don't aspire for our epitaphs to read I wish I had worked more at the office, it's still fair to say that interesting work is truly a gift of life. And just as other gifts of life can be used for different purposes so can our work. When work is put to holy purposes miracles abound. Today's seminar focuses on the miraculous effect of putting work to work for holy purposes and the abundance that flourishes when both work and money are used for holy purposes.
